A Conflict Of Visions Thomas

A Conflict of Visions is a book by Thomas Sowell. It was originally published in 1987; a revised edition appeared in 2007. Sowell's opening chapter attempts to answer the question of why the same people tend to be political adversaries in issue after issue, when the issues vary enormously in subject matter and sometimes hardly seem connected to one another. The root of these conflicts, Sowell claims, are the "visions", or the intuitive feelings that people have about human nature; different visi

A Conflict of Visions is a departure from Sowell's earlier, highly empirical studies. It is a reflective book in which he tries to discover the underlying "visions" of man and society that, he believes, have generated the principal opposing political theories of the last two centuries. Such visions are, he claims, "the silent shapers of our thoughts," and "the foundations on which theories are built."

A Conflict of Visions Quotes by Thomas Sowell

Controversies in politics arise from many sources, but the conflicts that endure for generations or centuries show a remarkably consistent pattern. In this classic work, Thomas Sowell analyzes this pattern. He describes the two competing visions that shape our debates about the nature of reason, justice, equality, and power: the "constrained" vision, which sees human nature as unchanging and selfish, and the "unconstrained" vision, in which human nature is malleable and perfectible.
