But, God has a much better plan and hope for us! Just consider the story of Barak and Deborah: A command from the Lord. Deborah was a leader, a judge, and a prophetess in Israel – one to whom God could reveal His secrets. (Amos 3:7) God used her to communicate His will to the people of Israel. You can read the full story about her in Judges 4-5.

Deborah in the Bible - a commentary on Deborah, the ...

Deborah has long been one of my favorite woman in the Bible, her story is filled with courage, and her faith could leave us all inspired. But who was Deborah in the Bible anyway and what was her role in the book of Judges? Deborah in the Bible was a prophet of God.

Powerful Lessons From Deborah In The Bible

Song of Deborah. In Judges 5, we read Judge Deborah's story again, but this time as a poem. This chapter in Scripture, often referred to as The Song of Deborah, is believed to be written as early as the 12th century BC and is considered by many biblical scholars as one of the earliest examples of Hebrew poetry.
