We Who Are About To

We Who Are About To... is a feminist science fiction novel by Joanna Russ. It first appeared in magazine form in the January 1976 and February 1976 issues of Galaxy Science Fiction and was first published in book form by Dell Publishing in July 1977.

We Who Are About To... - Wikipedia

We Who Are About To, released in 1977, is a clear-eyed, bleak excoriation of the interpenetration of masculinity, colonialism, and death. The short novel is about eight people—five women and three men—whose spaceship has gone off course and dropped them on a distant, unknown, semi-hospitable planet.

We Who Are About To... by Joanna Russ - Goodreads

"We Who Are About To is a seminal work that punctures many science fiction myths; it is about the hubris of humanity and the imperialist mission. It reminds us that maybe we aren't necessary, that the imperative to keep reproducing is irrational." —Farah Mendlesohn, editor of Foundation: The International Review of Science Fiction

We Who Are About To...: Russ, Joanna, Delany, Samuel R ...

We Who Are About To... (1976) is the third of Joanna Russ' science fiction novels I've read over the past few years. For some reason I was unable gather the courage to review The Female Man (1975) and might have been too enthusiastic about And Chaos Died (1970). We Who Are About To... is superior to both (although, not as historically important for the genre as The Female Man ).
